Planner notes

Mumbai: 8-Day Itinerary

Dates: 18–25 August 2026

Travellers: 4

Style: Mid-range

Weather outlook: Light drizzle or drizzle every day, with a 98–100% rain chance. The plan prioritises indoor and weather-flexible activities; carry rain protection and allow extra travel time.

Day 1 - 18 August

- Morning: Visit Siddhivinayak Temple. Keep the visit flexible around rain and local access conditions.
- Afternoon: Visit Mahalaxmi Temple.
- Evening: Explore the Gateway of India if the weather permits; otherwise, shorten the outdoor stop and return to an indoor café or restaurant.
- Food: Have a relaxed lunch around the temple area and dinner near your accommodation.
- Transport: Use app-based cabs or a hired vehicle for the temple visits; avoid long outdoor walks during showers.

Day 2 - 19 August

- Morning: Explore the Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Vastu Sangrahalaya, an indoor cultural stop well suited to the rainy forecast.
- Afternoon: Visit Elephanta Caves, subject to ferry operations and sea conditions. Keep an indoor Mumbai museum or heritage stop as a backup.
- Evening: Visit Marine Drive only during a dry spell; otherwise enjoy dinner nearby.
- Food: Plan lunch in South Mumbai and try a Mumbai-style street-food or café meal in the evening.
- Transport: Take a cab to the ferry area. Confirm ferry operations before leaving because of the monsoon conditions.

Day 3 - 20 August

- Morning: Visit Haji Ali Dargah, timing the visit around rain and access conditions.
- Afternoon: Explore Sanjay Gandhi National Park only if rainfall is manageable; otherwise replace it with an indoor museum or shopping stop.
- Evening: Stop at Chowpatty Beach for a brief visit if conditions are comfortable, followed by dinner.
- Food: Try local snacks at a reputable, busy vendor rather than eating food that has been exposed to rainwater.
- Transport: Use a cab between the morning and afternoon stops to reduce walking in heavy showers.

Day 4 - 21 August

- Morning: Spend the morning at Essel World, subject to weather and operating conditions.
- Afternoon: If outdoor rides are affected, switch to a local market or café stop.
- Evening: Dinner and rest at or near your accommodation.
- Food: Carry light snacks and water, while choosing a covered restaurant for the main meal.

- Transport: A pre-booked vehicle is the most practical option for a group of four, especially in monsoon traffic.

Day 5 - 22 August

- Morning: Free time for relaxed local exploration.
- Afternoon: Visit a local market or spend time at a café. Keep the afternoon flexible for rain.
- Evening: Dinner and rest.
- Food: Use this as a food-focused day: sample regional vegetarian and non-vegetarian dishes at clean, well-reviewed establishments.
- Transport: Use short cab or auto-rickshaw rides; avoid planning several distant stops.

Day 6 - 23 August

- Morning: Free morning for shopping, café time or a slower start.
- Afternoon: Local market or indoor cultural stop, depending on rainfall.
- Evening: Dinner and a relaxed evening.
- Food: Consider a sit-down lunch and reserve dinner during the busier evening period.
- Transport: Mumbai local trains can be useful for selected routes, but cabs may be more convenient for four travellers carrying shopping or travelling during rain.

Day 7 - 24 August

- Morning: Free time for local exploration.
- Afternoon: Café and market circuit, keeping stops close together to minimise exposure to rain.
- Evening: Final relaxed dinner in Mumbai.
- Food: Use the evening for a celebratory meal and revisit a favourite local snack from earlier in the trip.
- Transport: Keep a buffer for traffic and flooding-related delays; avoid tightly timed reservations.

Day 8 - 25 August

- Morning: Easy breakfast and last-minute shopping or neighbourhood exploration.
- Afternoon: Local market or café stop, followed by packing.
- Evening: Dinner and departure preparations.
- Food: Keep the final meal close to your accommodation or departure point.
- Transport: Leave early for the airport or railway station, particularly if travelling during peak traffic or rainfall.

Practical Tips

- Local transport: For four people, compare the cost of two app-based cabs with a pre-booked vehicle. Use local trains selectively, but allow extra time during monsoon conditions.
- Monsoon planning: Carry waterproof footwear, umbrellas or rain jackets, phone protection and a spare change of clothes. Confirm ferry and outdoor attraction operations on the day.
- Cultural note: Dress modestly and follow photography and queueing rules at temples and religious sites; remove footwear wherever required.
